Individuals eligible to be Members in the Organization shall be registered nurses currently in leadership positions in healthcare. Members shall be: registered nurses with organizational accountability for strategic, operational and/or administrative outcomes in sites where health care is delivered; faculty in graduate and undergraduate nursing programs, including deans and directors; consultants in nursing administration/management practice; persons employed by Joint Commission; editors of professional nursing journals; retired ONL members; and unemployed members for a period of two years.

Note: Contributions or gifts to ONL are not tax deductible as charitable contributions. However, they may be tax deductible as ordinary and necessary business expenses subject to restrictions imposed as a result of association lobbying activities. ONL estimates that the non-deductible portion of your 2010-2011 dues allocable to lobbying is 35%.
